Part 1: For the applicant

Thank you for choosing Nova Scotia!

Read this guide carefully to find out how you can apply to the Nova Scotia Nominee Program (NSNP) through the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway. If you are accepted through this stream, you may apply to the federal government for a permanent resident visa.

The Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway helps employers in the construction sector to hire and retain workers whose skills our province needs. Some Nova Scotia employers have had trouble filling positions because they could not find a Canadian citizen or permanent resident to do the job.

Important!* You must have a full-time, permanent job offer from a Nova Scotia employer BEFORE you can apply to immigrate through the NSNP Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway. Full-time means that you will work year-round for a minimum of 30 hours a week. Permanent means your job does NOT have an end date.

Is the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway right for you?

The Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway is only for people who have a permanent, full-time job offer from a Nova Scotia employer in the construction sector. Read the following carefully to see if the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway is right for you.

The Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway may be right for you IF you meet ALL of the criteria listed below.

- You have been offered a full-time job. Full-time means you will work a minimum of 30 hours a week all year round.
- Your job offer must be in the list of approved NOCs. This list is provided below.
- Your offer is for a permanent job. Permanent means that your job has no end date.
- The job you have been offered is located in Nova Scotia.
- You intend to live in Nova Scotia.
- Your employer is a Nova Scotia employer in the construction sector (NAICS 23). That means:
 - If the employer is a commercial business, it must be registered with the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stock Companies AND show that it has a permanent establishment in Nova Scotia as defined in Canada's Income Tax Act.
 - If the employer is a not-for-profit organization, it must be registered under the Societies Act.
 - The employer must have operated in Nova Scotia for at least 2 years.
- You will be paid a sufficient wage or salary for your job. See Documents related to your move to Nova Scotia.
- You are between the ages of 21 and 55.
- You have a high school diploma OR proof you have completed a construction specific industry training program.
- You have proof of your immigration status in the country where you are currently living.
- You have worked 12 complete calendar months within the last 5 years and a minimum of 1,560 hours. This work must be related to the job you are offered AND it must be paid work. It cannot include volunteer work or unpaid internships.

Do NOT apply to the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway if even ONE of the statements below applies to you.

- You have been found to have committed misrepresentation in relation to an immigration application in the last five years.
- You are currently living in a country in which you are NOT legally allowed to live.
- You have received a nomination or endorsement (NSNP or Atlantic Immigration Program) within the last 12 months.
- You are in Canada as part of the Live-In Caregiver Program.
- You have applied to immigrate to Canada on compassionate or humanitarian grounds or to claim refugee status.
- You have applied for refugee status in Canada and been refused.
- You have received a removal order from IRCC or the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA)
- You are currently studying at a Canadian post-secondary institution.
- You received a scholarship or award that requires you to return to your home country upon graduation and you have not yet done so.
- You are self-employed.
- You plan to start a business or to become self-employed.
- You are a majority shareholder in a Nova Scotia business.
- You are a passive investor. That is, you plan to invest in a Nova Scotia business but will have little to no involvement in business operations.
- You have been offered a sales job for which you will ONLY be paid commission. Commission means you are paid a percentage of the value of the item you sell or the profit your employer makes from that item.
- Your job contravenes Labour, Skills and Immigration (LSI) policies related to:
 - On-site Home-based Businesses
 - Service Home-based Businesses
 - Businesses with a Telework Arrangement

What you need to know BEFORE you apply

You must apply to 2 levels of government: provincial and federal

Level 1: Nova Scotia (provincial)

First you apply to the Nova Scotia Nominee Program (NSNP) Critical Construction Worker Pilot-Job Offer Pathway. If you are nominated for this stream, we will email you a nomination certificate. At the same time, we will send proof of your nomination to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC).

Costs

There is no application fee for the NSNP, but there may be costs related to your application. For example,

- translation costs if your required documents are in neither English nor French
- fees charged by a representative should you choose to hire one
- fees for English or French language testing if this is required

Level 2: Canada (federal)

Next, if you are nominated by the Province of Nova Scotia, apply to IRCC for your permanent resident visa within 6 months of receiving your nomination certificate. You may submit applications for yourself and include your spouse and dependents in the application.

Costs

There is a fee to apply for a permanent resident visa. For current fees, see the fee list on the IRCC website.

You are responsible for your application

It is up to you to provide ALL of the documents we require including those that you get from your employer, your spouse or common-law partner, and your dependents. You must also ensure that all documents are valid when you submit your application for this stream AND when you apply for a permanent resident visa. If you are missing documents or any document is invalid, we will refuse your application.

Important! You must tell us if your status changes at any time before you receive a permanent resident visa. These are just a few examples of a change in status:

- a change in marital status for example, you got married or divorced
- you no longer have a job offer
- you changed employers
- If your employer has indicated an immediate labour need and requested a letter of support for a work permit, you are expected to apply to IRCC for a work permit as soon as possible and travel to Canada as soon as possible if the work permit is issued. If you do not intend to do so or if your intention changes before you receive a permanent resident visa, you must tell us.

Know the National Occupational Classification (NOC) for your job offer

The NOC 2021 has 6 categories based on training, education, experience and responsibility (TEER):

- 0 Management jobs.
- 1 Jobs that usually require a university degree.
- 2 Jobs that usually require a college diploma of two to three years or completion of an apprenticeship training program of two to five years.
- 3 Jobs that usually require a college diploma of less than two years or completion of an apprenticeship training program of less than two years.
- 4 Occupations that usually require a high school diploma, or several weeks of on-the-job training.
- 5 Occupations that usually need short-term work demonstration and no formal education.

Find out more about NOC 2021 on the National Occupational Classification website.

The NOC is important for 3 reasons:

- It helps you to determine the level of English or French language ability you will need.
- It helps us to determine if your qualifications and experience match the requirements of the job.
- It helps us to determine whether the wage you are being offered is within Nova Scotia's wage range for that job.

Your job offer must be in one of these NOCs

70010 – Construction managers

70011 – Home building and renovation managers

72011 – Contractors and supervisors, electrical trades and telecommunications occupations

72014 – Contractors and supervisors, other construction trades, installers, repairers and servicers

72020 – Contractors and supervisors, mechanic trades

72106 – Welders and related machine operators

72200 – Electricians (except industrial and power system)

72201 – Industrial electricians

72310 – Carpenters

72320 – Bricklayers

72401 – Heavy-duty equipment mechanics

72402 – Heating, refrigeration and air conditioning mechanics

72500 – Crane operators

73100 – Concrete finishers

73102 – Plasterers, drywall installers and finishers and lathers

73110 – Roofers and shinglers

73200 – Residential and commercial installers and servicers

73400 – Heavy equipment operators

75101 – Material handlers

75110 – Construction trades helpers and labourers

75119 – Other trades helpers and labourers

You may need a licence or certificate for the job you have been offered

Before you apply to the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway, find out if you need a licence or certificate to do the job you have been offered. Your employer can help you with this.

You may use a representative

There are 2 kinds of representatives: paid and unpaid. Both can help you to complete and submit your application. When you appoint a representative, you do 2 things:

- You authorize us to share information about your application with them.
- You authorize them to act on your behalf.

Unpaid representatives

As the name suggests, unpaid representatives do NOT charge for their services. Your representative could be a family member, a friend, or someone else.

Paid representatives

Paid representatives charge a fee for their services. If you are using a paid immigration representative, they must be authorized. Authorized representatives must be one of the following:

- An immigration consultant who is a member in good standing with the College of Immigration and Citizenship Consultants (CCIC). Visit the CCIC website.
- A lawyer or paralegal who is a member in good standing of a Canadian law society, barristers' society, or barreau, or a law student under the supervision of a recognized lawyer. Visit the Federation of Law Societies of Canada website for links to law societies across Canada.
- A notary public who is a member in good standing of the Chambre des notaires du Québec or a law student under their supervision. Visit the Chambre website.

You don't need to use a representative to prepare and submit an application. If you choose to use a representative—paid or unpaid—they must complete an NSNP 50 – Use of a Representative form. You must submit this form with your application.

Warning! We strongly recommend that if you choose to hire a representative, you choose one from the categories listed above. We do NOT deal with unauthorized representatives. Also, if your representative is NOT authorized, you may not have the ability to hold them accountable if they make an error or give you bad advice.

Misrepresentations disqualify you for 5 years

What is misrepresentation? Misrepresentation happens when you or someone else involved in your application does one of these things:

- is not truthful about one or more of the eligibility criteria
- leaves out information we need to assess your application

The people involved in your application include yourself, your employer, your spouse, and your dependents, or an immigration representative if you decide to use one..

Important! If you are refused for misrepresentation, you will NOT be allowed to apply to any immigration stream for 5 years.

There are no guarantees

Submitting an application and meeting the eligibility requirements for the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway do NOT guarantee that your application will be processed and assessed.

Even if you are successful and receive a nomination certificate, we cannot guarantee that you will receive a work permit or permanent resident visa. IRCC has its own application process. They are the only ones who can issue these documents. Labour, Skills and Immigration (LSI) does not issue work permits or permanent resident visas.

Responsibilities of LSI

- assess nominee applications
- issue letters of support for work permits (if applicable)
- issue nomination certificates

Responsibilities of IRCC

- assess work permits (if applicable)
- assess permanent resident applications
- issue permits and visas

Important! LSI-issued letters of support or nomination certificates do NOT guarantee approval by IRCC.

Criteria may change; streams may close

We may stop accepting applications for a period of time. We call this “closing” or “suspending” the stream. If we close or suspend the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway before we review your application, we may not consider it even if you submitted it before we closed the stream.

There may be a delay between the time we receive your application and when we can process it. During that time, criteria may change. We will assess your application based on the criteria in place at that time. Check our immigration website regularly to stay up-to-date with all changes.

Decisions are final; there are no appeals

If we decide to refuse your application for the NSNP Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway, our decision is final. There is no appeal process.

We may withdraw your nomination

We may withdraw your nomination at any time before you receive a permanent resident visa and before you arrive in Canada for any of these reasons:

- You no longer meet the eligibility requirements of the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway.
- The Government of Canada has advised us that some information in your application for permanent residency is false.
- IRCC finds that you, your spouse, or a dependent is not allowed to immigrate to Canada.

You may withdraw your application

You may withdraw your application without penalty at any time before you receive a nomination certificate. There is one exception. You may NOT withdraw your application without penalty if we know or suspect that you have NOT been truthful or have left out important information in your application.

Gather the documents you need

You will need a number of documents to complete your application. You will have to complete some of these documents yourself. Some will have to be completed by your employer. You will also have to get documents from third parties such as educational institutions and governments. Begin to gather these documents as soon as you know that you will apply for the Critical Construction Worker Stream- Job Offer Pathway. It may take some time to gather all the documents you need.

Important!

- All documents must be PDF files.
- Documents with images must be scanned in colour.
- Text-only documents may be scanned in black and white.
- The total size of all documents must be no more than 100 megabytes (MB).
- Each file name must be no more than 50 characters.
- All documents must be clear enough to read.
- Scanner resolution must be 300 dots per inch (dpi).

Warning! We may close your application if documents are missing, unsigned, unclear, or have been enhanced or edited.

Documents in languages other than English or French

Documents in languages other than English or French must be translated by a certified translator.

- Submit a copy of the original document AND a copy of the certified translation.
- Submit proof from the translator of their certification.

Warning! These people are NOT allowed to translate your documents:

- members of your family
- anyone who works for the paid representative you have hired to help you with your application

If your documents are NOT translated by a certified translator, we may NOT accept your application.

Documents related to your job offer

- NSNP 200—Your employer must complete and sign this form. It proves that they have offered you a permanent, full-time job.
- NSNP 200 supporting documents.

While your employer must complete and sign the NSNP 200 form, you must submit it and all supporting documents as part of your application.

Documents related to your work experience

To prove that you have the work experience and skills needed for the job, you must include letters of reference from your employers. These letters must be written on company letterhead and they must be stamped with the company's official seal if it has one.

Letters of reference must also include ALL of the following:

- the company's full address, telephone and fax numbers, email and website addresses
- your supervisor's signature or that of a responsible officer
- the specific period of time that you worked for the company
- the titles of the jobs you held while you worked for the company
- the amount of time you worked in each job
- your main duties in each job
- your annual salary plus benefits for each job
- the number of hours you worked per week in each job
- the number of hours you worked in total in each job

Send the above list to each employer you ask for a reference letter. This will help to ensure that they include all the information we need.

Documents related to your education and training

- a copy of your high-school diploma OR proof you have completed a construction specific industry training program
- copies of the licences or certificates required for the job you have been offered, if needed

Documents related to your ability to communicate in English or French

NOC TEER 0, 1, 2, and 3

If your first language is NOT English or French, you must provide evidence that you meet one of the following:

- the criteria listed under Canadian Language Benchmarks (CLB) Level 5 or higher
- the criteria listed under Niveaux de compétence linguistique canadiens (NCLC) Level 5 or higher

We will consider these documents:

- educational transcripts or other documents that show English or French was the main language of instruction or communication
- employment history and references that show English or French as the main language of communication
- the results of one of these language tests:
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS) General Training
 - Canadian English Language Proficiency Index Program (CELPIP) General
 - Pearson Test of English (PTE) Core
 - Test d'évaluation de français (TEF) Canada
 - Test de connaissance du français (TCF) Canada

This table shows the scores you need in each language test to meet the CLB/NCLC 5 standard.

Test	Listening	Reading	Writing	Speaking
IELTS	5	4	5	5
CELPIP	5	5	5	5
PTE	39	42	51	51
TEF	181	151	226	226
TCF	369	375	6	6

NOC TEER 4 and 5

You must submit the results of one of these language tests even if your first language is English or French:

- IELTS General Training
- CELPIP-General
- PTE Core
- TEF Canada
- TCF Canada

Your test results must show that you meet at least the CLB level 4 criteria for either the Canadian Language Benchmarks (CLB) OR Niveaux de compétence linguistique canadiens (NCLC).

This table shows the scores you need in each language test to meet the CLB/NCLC 4 standard.

Test	Listening	Reading	Writing	Speaking
IELTS	4.5	3.5	4	4
CELPIP	4	4	4	4
PTE	28	33	41	42
TEF	145	121	181	181
TCF	331	342	4	4

Warning! You must have had your language skills tested within 2 years of applying to the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway. We do NOT accept test results dated more than 2 years before the date on your application.

Documents about you and your family

Passports

You, and everyone immigrating with you, must have a valid passport. The expiry date of all passports should be at least 2 years from the date of your application. Do NOT include the original passports in your application.

Instead, include copies of pages that show these things:

- the passport number
- the date of issue and expiry
- the photo of the passport holder
- the name of the passport holder as well as their date and place of birth
- any changes to the passport holder's name, date of birth, or other identifying information
- any changes to the passport's expiry date
- any visas or visits to Canada

Documents related to your spouse and children if they are immigrating with you

Include the documents that apply to you:

- a copy of your marriage certificate
- copies of birth certificates for dependent children
- copies of custody documents and permission for the child to come to Canada
- copies of adoption papers

Documents related to your immigration status

Include the documents that apply to you:

- If you currently live in Canada, include a copy of proof of your legal status in Canada. Ensure that your proof is valid when you submit your application.
- If you currently live in a country of which you are NOT a citizen, include a copy of proof of your legal status in that country.
- If you have applied to immigrate to Canada before, include copies of every letter you have received from the Canadian government or any provincial or territorial government regarding each application.

Documents related to your move to Nova Scotia

You may provide one or both of the following:

- banking statements from the past 3 months showing all account balances and transaction history
- statements from your investment portfolio showing fixed deposits and the terms for withdrawing funds before the investment matures

This may include transferable funds in your name or your spouse's name.

Important! Do NOT include real estate or personal items such as jewelry, furniture, and vehicles.

Why do I need to include banking and investment information?

We need to know that you have enough money to pay for these things:

- your immigration costs
- your travel expenses
- the costs related to settling in Nova Scotia such as having enough money for food, rent, clothing, etc.

You can find the requirements regarding the settlement funds for your family size, and the form in which funds will be accepted on IRCC's website.

Note: The above link mentions Express Entry. If you are submitting a Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway application, you will NOT apply through the Express Entry system. This link is only for information about the required settlement funds.

These requirements may be reduced if you are already living in Nova Scotia or have arranged employment. In all cases, you must provide proof of your financial resources in your own name. The reduction will be assessed by an officer on a case-by-case basis.

We will NOT approve your application if it appears likely that your family income will be below Statistics Canada's Low Income Cut-Off (LICO). We calculate the LICO requirement based on your family size whether they are coming to Canada with you or not. Your family income includes these things:

- the income you will earn from your job offer
- your spouse's income if they have a permanent job offer in Nova Scotia

To find out if your income will be above or below LICO, compare your family income to the minimum incomes listed in Table 1 of the Federal Income Scale.

Note: While the above link refers to specific IRCC program requirements, the only information that applies to you as a Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway applicant is under the heading Federal Income Scale.

The application process

Apply to the NSNP under the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway

1 Go to novascotia.ca/ensnp to submit your application.

You must complete the eNSNP 100 form online and ensure that you include all the documents we need. On the form you must show your intention to settle in Nova Scotia. Be sure to write in detail

- why you chose to settle in Nova Scotia permanently
- what Nova Scotia can offer you
- what Nova Scotia can offer your family if you have one
- if you currently live in another Canadian province, explain why you would leave this province and come to Nova Scotia

These are some details you may want to include:

- where you plan to live
- how you will meet your daily needs
- where you will work, including details about your job
- where you will send your children, if any, to school or daycare
- what your plans are for improving your English or French
- how you plan to become part of the community to which you are moving

Important! You must write all this information in your own words. Do NOT copy information from other sources.

2 You will either be nominated or refused

If you are nominated

If you meet the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway criteria, we will email a nomination certificate to you or your representative. The certificate expires 6 months after the date of nomination. We will also send proof of your nomination directly to IRCC. You need to apply for this visa within 6 months of receiving your nomination certificate.

If we decide to refuse your application

We will refuse your application if you do NOT meet the criteria for the Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway. We will NOT refuse you right away. Instead, we will email you or your representative a letter explaining our concerns or requesting further information. You have 10 business days to submit new information for us to consider.

After 10 business days we will re-assess your application, including the new information. We will then make our final decision and email it to you or your representative.

We may extend this 10-day time limit in rare circumstances if you request it. For example, we may extend it if you were in hospital or had a death in the family.

If we refuse your application

We will notify you or your representative by email. This decision is final. There is no appeal process.

We may extend your nomination

You can ask us to extend your nomination period beyond 6 months. This will give you more time to apply to IRCC for your permanent resident visa. You must provide evidence as to why you need the extension and include any supporting documents we ask for.

We allow you only one such extension. This extension will expire 6 months after the original expiry date. We do NOT grant extensions after one year from the original nomination date. After one year, you will have to re-apply to the program.

3 Ask for a Letter of Support for your Temporary Work Permit

After you have been nominated by the Province of Nova Scotia, you can request a Letter of Support from our office (Immigration and Population Growth Branch of LSI) if your work permit is expiring within the next several months. You can use this letter to apply for a temporary work permit or to renew your existing work permit with IRCC. A work permit lets you work in Nova Scotia while IRCC processes your application for a permanent resident visa.

4 Apply for permanent residence

Within 6 months of your nomination certificate having been issued, submit a complete application for a permanent resident visa to IRCC. We will send you more information about this with your nomination certificate.

5 Tell us when you become a permanent resident

Contact us within 30 days of your arrival in Nova Scotia. Send us these documents:

- a copy of the Confirmation of Permanent Residence
- a copy of your passport
- your Nova Scotia contact information including
- your current address
- your phone number
- your email address

Important! You must tell us if your status changes at any time before you receive a permanent resident visa. These are just a few examples of a change in status:

- a change in marital status for example, you got married or divorced
- you no longer have a job offer
- you changed employers

Contact us by email at immigration@novascotia.ca or email or phone your assessing officer. Be sure to include your case number if you have one.

Part 2: For employers

Warning! We may refuse your prospective employee's application if you do NOT meet our requirements.

Is the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway right for the job you are offering?

The Critical Construction Worker Pilot- Job Offer Pathway is for applicants who have a permanent, full- time job offer from a Nova Scotia employer in the construction sector (NAICS 23).

Important!

Full-time means your employee will work year-round for a minimum of 30 hours per week.

Permanent means the employment has no pre-determined end date.

Nova Scotia employer means an employer that meets these criteria:

- If the employer is a commercial business, it must be registered with the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stock Companies AND show that it has a permanent establishment in Nova Scotia as defined in Canada's Income Tax Act.
- If the employer is a not-for-profit organization, it must be registered under the Societies Act.
- The employer must have operated in Nova Scotia for at least 2 years.

Does your business qualify for this stream?

In addition to the criteria listed above for a Nova Scotia employer, you must meet the following criteria as an employer:

- You must have a history of good workplace and business practices and must be compliant with all applicable laws and regulations.
- You must be in good standing with provincial occupational health and safety and labour authorities.
- You may need to get an Employer Registration Certificate from the Director of Labour Standards in order to recruit and hire foreign workers for employment in Nova Scotia.
- You must NOT be in violation of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act or Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations.
- You must NOT deduct the costs of bringing a foreign worker to Canada from their wages or salaries.
- If you are an employment agency or placement firm, you may NOT act as an employer unless you are hiring the applicant as a full-time permanent employee in your agency or firm.

Does the job offer qualify for this stream?

To qualify for the Critical Construction Worker Pilot – Job Offer Pathway the job offer must meet these criteria:

- The job must be with a Nova Scotia employer in the construction sector (NAICS 23) AND be located in Nova Scotia.
- The job must be permanent. That means there is no pre-determined end date.
- The job must be full-time. That means the employee will work a minimum of 30 hours per week.
- The employee must be paid a salary that meets provincial employment standards and the provincial wage range for the specific occupation.
- There must be a shortage of qualified permanent residents or Canadian citizens to fill the position.
- Hiring the applicant must NOT contravene any existing bargaining unit agreements, labour agreements or standards, nor can it be part of any employment disputes.
- Hiring the applicant must not contravene LSI policies related to:
 - On-site Home-based Businesses
 - Service Home-based Businesses
 - Business with a Telework Arrangement

What you need to do BEFORE you offer a job to a foreign worker

Try to recruit Canadian citizens or permanent residents for the job

You must show that, BEFORE you offered the job to the applicant, you tried to recruit a Canadian citizen or permanent resident. We will accept these documents as proof:

- a copy of the positive Labour Market Impact Assessment (LMIA) you received from Employment and Social Development Canada (Service Canada) for this job. Your prospective employee must be named in this document AND the expiry date must be on or after the date that they submit their application to us (Immigration and Population Growth Branch of LSI).

OR

- proof that the worker is on an open work permit and legally entitled to work in Canada for example with a Post-Graduation Work Permit or the position offered is LMIA exempt.

OR

- 3 advertisements and related information that meet the conditions described below.

We may ask for additional information.

Advertisements

If you do NOT have a current positive LMIA, or proof that the worker or the position is NOT LMIA exempt, you must show that you advertised for the position. Advertisements must meet these criteria:

- They must be in English or French and include these things:
 - your company's operating name, telephone and fax numbers, email and mailing addresses
 - job title
 - duties
 - skill requirements
 - location of work (city or town)
- They must appear in 3 different publications. You must show that each publication targets a Canadian audience with the education, experience, language ability, and skill level needed for the job.
- They must have been published in the 6 months BEFORE the date you offered the job to the applicant.
- They must be publicly available for at least 4 weeks in a row.
- At least one of the advertisements must be in a Canada-wide recruitment tool that has a track record of finding workers for the job such as Job Bank.
- You must demonstrate that your recruitment did not result in any qualified candidates who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents. You must not make a job offer to a foreign national until all Canadian candidates have been vetted through the recruitment process.

Support the applicant through the immigration process

You may want to think about doing some of these things:

- Help to pay the immigration fees.
- Help your prospective employee to find housing.
- Refer your prospective employee to settlement services agencies and language classes.

Help your employee to succeed in their job

- Continue to offer the settlement supports described above.
- Offer bonuses or incentives.
- Offer career training, benefits packages, and advancement opportunities.

Prepare information to include on the NSNP 200 form

You will need to include the following information on the NSNP 200 form that you will give to your prospective employee as part of their immigration application:

- a detailed job description. This includes the roles, responsibilities, qualifications, education, and experience needed for the job.
- detailed conditions of employment including supporting documents. These are some of the things you must include; we may ask for others:
 - wages, this includes wages paid during a probationary period.
 - Include the length of the probationary period.
 - overtime pay
 - vacation time and vacation pay
 - holiday pay
 - hours of work
 - location of employment
 - benefits, including accommodation if applicable

Duty to provide accurate information

Labour, Skills and Immigration relies on information provided by employers and authorized representatives to assess whether an applicant is eligible to participate in the Nova Scotia Nominee Program.

Information provided to LSI by employers or authorized representatives that:

- is false or misleading about one or more Nova Scotia Nominee Program eligibility criteria, or
- leaves out or conceals requested information about one or more Nova Scotia Nominee Program eligibility criteria

may result in a determination that the employer or authorized representative has committed misrepresentation or fraud. This applies to all information provided to LSI, including information in the NSNP 200 form and any additional document(s) or verbal information provided in support of the NSNP applicant. As necessary, LSI may ask for further information in support of an application, and employers are obligated to provide this information as requested by the Government of Nova Scotia.

Important! Employers and authorized representatives who commit misrepresentation or fraud in relation to the Nova Scotia Nominee Program will NOT be allowed to participate in any provincial immigration programs for a period of five (5) years

- NSNP 200 form. The authorized signing officer of the company making the job offer should complete and sign this form.

AND

- A signed copy of the accepted job offer AND
- a copy of your Employer Registration Certificate if you need one AND
- a copy of the LMIA in which the applicant is named. The expiry date must be on or after the date that the applicant submits their application to us (Immigration and Population Growth Branch of LSI).

OR

- proof that the worker or the position offered is LMIA exempt

OR

- copies of the advertisements described above

Give your prospective employee PDF copies of all these documents to include as part of their application.

Part 3: For the applicant AND the employer
